

KCL WASH Week

Department of Geography

March 18-25th 2015

Wednesday, March 18th

Time & Place	Session	Speaker
Inaugural WASH Week panel for World Water Day
16.00 – 17.30 Room K0.18 (ground floor) King's Building	Why water matters: Evidence from Tanzania and Zimbabwe	Professor Frances Cleaver Head of Environment, Politics and Development Department of Geography KCL
	The Human Right to Water	Dr. Alex Loftus Senior Lecturer - Department of Geography KCL
	WASH and the environment	Brendan Bromwich KCL, UNEP Associate - Sudan (United Nations Environment Programme)
	Panel Discussion	Chair Professor Tony Allan

Tuesday, March 24th

WASH in complex emergencies

09.30-10.15 Pyramid Room (K4U.04) (4 th floor) King's Building	Emergency Humanitarian WASH: Priority issues and lessons from conflict and climatic displacement	Carmen Paradiso Global WASH Advisor International Medical Corps
---	--	---

Panel on WASH and infectious diseases: Combatting Cholera and Ebola

10.30-12.30 Pyramid Room (K4U.04) (4 th floor) King's Building	WASH for disease prevention	Dr. Tim Healing Trustee RedR
	Combatting Cholera through Behavior Change	Simon Lawson C4D Cholera Consultant UNICEF
	Responding to Ebola	Mark Buttle Senior Humanitarian WASH Advisor Save The Children
	Panel Discussion	Chaired by Carmen Paradiso, International Medical Corps

Panel on WASH ownership and participation

13.00-15.15 Pyramid Room (K4U.04) (4 th floor) King's Building	'Local Ownership' of WASH in Pakistan and beyond	Amiera Sawas Research Associate - Department of Geography KCL
	Informal and private sector management models in WASH in Angola and Mozambique	Mariana Matoso Research Officer - Water Policy ODI (Overseas Development Institute)
	Working with institutions: the challenges of financing and maintaining Urban Wash in low income areas	Sam Drabble Research & Evaluation Officer WSUP (Water & Sanitation for the Urban Poor)
	Community Led Total Sanitation	Cathy Stephen

		WASH Advisor Plan International
	Panel discussion	Chaired by Amiera Sawas
Urban WASH in complex emergencies
15.15-15.45 Pyramid Room (K4U.04) (4 th floor) King's Building	Humanitarian WASH Challenges in an Urban Environment	Harriette Purchas WASH Trainer RedR
Wednesday, March 25th
WASH and Climate Change
12.00-12.45 Room K3.11 King's Building	Adaptation to climate change and risk screening for WASH	Naomi Oates and Justin Doczi Research Officers – Water Policy ODI (Overseas Development Institute)
Panel on WASH, gender and vulnerability
13.00 – 15.00 S – 1.06 (level - 1) Strand Building	Vulnerability, violence and gendered access to WASH in Pakistan	Amiera Sawas Research Associate - Department of Geography, KCL
	Embedding gender-inclusiveness in Urban WASH programme design	Sam Drabble Research & Evaluation Officer WSUP (Water & Sanitation for the Urban Poor)
	Vulnerability, equity and inclusiveness in WASH	Louisa Gosling Programme Manager - Principles Wateraid
	Violence, gender and WASH – research and a practitioners toolkit (SHARE consortium)	Louisa Gosling Programme Manager - Principles Wateraid
	Panel Discussion	Chaired by Giovanna Grandoni PhD researcher in gender and development KCL
Session on Water and Sanitation post 2015
15.15-16.00 S – 1.01 (level - 1) Strand Building	Shared Sanitation and universal coverage: is it an improved form of sanitation or not?	Jeroen Ensink Senior Lecturer Public Health Engineering London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine
16.15-17.00 S – 1.01 (level - 1) Strand Building	The sanitation chain at city level: Improving faecal sludge management (FSM)	Georges Mikhael, Head of Sanitation, WSUP (Water & Sanitation for the Urban Poor)
17.00-17.45 S – 1.01 (level - 1) Strand Building	Hygiene – the neglected but vital component of WASH	Dorothy Peprah PhD student London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine
17.45	Drinks Reception

All events are located on the Strand Campus of Kings College London.
Please Register for WASH Week events at <http://goo.gl/forms/qt2g2tw6uf> and email Laura.Scott@kcl.ac.uk and/or Amiera.Sawas@kcl.ac.uk with questions.
Thank you.